

Israelis Shell Village, Slay Arab Terrorist

By The Associated Press
Israeli gunboats shelled a Palestinian refugee camp in Lebanon during the night, and today the Israeli government announced an Arab terrorist had been killed and a second captured after they swam into Israeli waters with guns and explosives on floats.

Lt. Gen. Mordechai Gur, Israeli chief of staff, announced on the state radio that Israeli forces would remain on alert until Syria agreed to renew the mandate for the United Nations disengagement force on the Golan Heights. The mandate expires at the end of the month. Gur said November would continue to be a nervous time for the Middle East.

An Israeli communique said the two guerrillas were briefed for their mission at the Rashidiye refugee camp, the target of the Israeli shelling. Rashidiye, 12 miles north of the Israeli border on the southern edge of the city of Tyre, has a population of 30,000 Palestinians.

The communique said Israeli troops intercepted the guerrillas on the coast Sunday morning, killed one in a gun battle and captured the other. There were no Israeli casualties, the communique said.

Both were members of Al Fatah, the guerrilla organization headed by Yasir Arafat, the chief of the Palestine Liberation Organization, the communique said. It said part of their mission was "to plant explosives in market places and other crowded places."

The Lebanese government said Israeli naval forces made two attacks during the night on the Rashidiye camp. The Israeli military command said the target was "a terrorist departure base" south of Rashidiye.

"Good hits were reported, and the vessels returned safely," said an Israeli spokesman.

The Lebanese communique said there was no assessment of casualties

yet. But it claimed that fire from coastal guns and Lebanese tanks forced the gunboats to retreat.

The Palestine guerrillas said there were two attacks, before and after midnight, and the southern half of the refugee camp was heavily shelled. It also gave no report of casualties.

It was the seventh successive day of Israeli action against guerrilla bases in south Lebanon. Eleven Palestinians and Lebanese were reported killed in the earlier attacks.

The Israelis shelled the Rashidiye camp on Oct. 31, charging that guerrillas based there were preparing to make a commando raid along the coast.

Meanwhile, Defense Minister Shimon Peres told the Israeli cabinet that tension generated by fears of new fighting between Syria and Israel had eased after a partial Israeli mobilization. But he said the Israeli government and its military commanders were watching Syria's moves closely.

Haim Herzog, a former chief of Israeli intelligence who now is the semiofficial state radio's military analyst, said if Syria does not agree to renewal of the mandate of the U.N.

peacekeeping force on the Golan Heights at the end of the month, fighting could break out.

Al Ahran, the semiofficial Cairo newspaper, said latest reports were "unanimous that tension has receded somewhat following extensive consultations between the superpowers and other concerned parties."

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, announced that a Soviet cruiser, destroyer and submarine would visit the Syrian port of Latakia Nov. 20-25. The visit was seen as a public demonstration of Moscow's support for Syria.

Congress Returns; Ford Opens Japan Visit

6 Veto Messages Await House Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is returning to business with many lame ducks among its ranks, a pile of unfinished business and more trials of strength with the executive branch.

Both houses convene today, and will shortly be taking a recess for Thanksgiving.

Six veto messages from President Ford await the House. The Democratic leadership plans to attempt congressional overrides on at least the vetoes of amendments to the Freedom of Information Act and of a bill broadening the vocational rehabilitation program.

The override votes tentatively have been set for Wednesday.

The Senate Rules Committee, which did not meet its goal of completing hearings on the Rockefeller nomination last week, resumes its sessions today. The House Judiciary Committee begins its hearings on Rockefeller on Thursday.

Leaders of both chambers say they expect to dispose of the nomination before adjourning some time in late December.

Chrysler Shutdown Plans Are Laid

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. is expected to disclose plans today for a shutdown of virtually its entire production system during December.

"It's obvious we're going to be making some cutbacks. We'll decide Monday how we're going to do it - where, when and to what extent," said Chrysler President John Riccardo.

He denied that a decision had already been made to close five of the firm's six assembly plants. Such a move would idle almost 30,000 assemblers immediately, and subsequent shutdowns in parts plants could affect another 50,000, sources said.

Industry observers said a shutdown of most Chrysler plants would be an unprecedented cost-saving gesture, unheard of except in wartime.

Chrysler Chairman Lynn Townsend has requested a meeting this afternoon with United Auto Workers leaders.

Meanwhile, 95,000 Big Three auto workers will be on layoffs this week, the largest number of furloughs in the industry since new models debuted in September and sales nosedived.

More than 25 per cent of Chrysler's 100,000 blue-collar workers are on layoff this week, the firm said.

Chrysler sales were off more than 30 per cent in the most recent sales period, and the firm has an inventory of more than 120 days worth of unsold new cars, almost double its competitors.

General Motors has announced layoffs which will idle 49,300 workers this week, including 36,100 who have been indefinitely furloughed. GM's hourly workforce numbers 370,000, down from 420,000 in 1973.

Ford Motor Co. layoffs this week at three assembly plants and three manufacturing plants will affect 8,250 workers. Openended layoffs for 1,800 workers beginning today bring Ford's indefinite layoff mark to 10,425. The Ford work force is more than 160,000.

No Quick Coal Strike End Seen By Rank-And-File

WELCH, W.Va. (AP) — The unexpected delay in coal contract talks due to the slaying of a United Mine Workers official has reinforced feelings of southern West Virginia miners that there will be no quick end to the strike.

"I've talked to several miners and many of them aren't excited about the contract. I don't think a quick ratification is likely," said Don Widener, a clerk at U.S. Steel Company's No. 2 mine at Gary.

"We're still playing a waiting game with the contract—we'll know more in a few days," commented George Redd, vice president of UMW Local 6196 at Keystone in McDowell County.

The killing of Alabama union official Sam Littlefield in a robbery attempt Friday at his Washington hotel room caused the UMW Bargaining Council to postpone talks until Tuesday. The council must approve the tentative contract before it goes to the rank and file for ratification.

Most miners in this area say they like much of the lengthy proposal, but find fault with certain parts, notably a reported no-strike clause that does not allow walkouts for local grievances.

Roy Stallard, 58, said he and his fellow miners want that right.

"Now when we have a grievance and walk out, the company gets an injunction and orders us back to work. Just like that. I don't think we'll ratify a contract that has that clause in it," he added.

Stallard commented that the layoff, which could last a month, is no worse than a finger splinter. Carpenters get splinters and miners get layoffs at contract time, he said. "This happens every three years and I've been around 33 years. You save ahead and stick together."

He believes the strike will hurt the young miners the most.

"Many of them work three or four days a week, get enough money to have a good time and then spend away. They are the people who will have a hard time lasting through a long strike. When you've been through them before, you learn how to handle yourself," he added.

Charlie Asbury of Pocahontas, Va., who also works at the U.S. Steel mine complex at Gary said he likes several provisions in the new contract, but doubts that miners will accept the whole package.

"I like the guaranteed sick leave policy, but some things don't seem so good. Evidently we didn't get all the holidays we asked for and the wage differentials between miners' pay didn't seem to be closed up enough."

TOKYO (AP) — President Ford arrived in Japan today for the briefest of airport welcomes, then took a helicopter to downtown Tokyo for an overnight rest in a heavily guarded palace.

After a 15-hour flight from Washington across the International Date Line, the first American President to visit Japan scheduled a 17-hour respite to rest up before calling on Emperor Hirohito Tuesday and opening talks with Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka.

To minimize the chance of interference by radical leftists opposed to the President's visit, neither the emperor nor Tanaka went to the airport, and the arrival ceremony there lasted only 11 minutes.

Busloads of carefully screened Japanese waved American and Japanese flags and applauded as Ford left Air Force One and shook hands with U.S. Ambassador James Hodgson, Takeshi Yasukawa, the Japanese ambassador to the United States, and Japanese protocol officials.

Howitzers fired a 21-gun salute required by protocol, and the President waved to the crowd as he was escorted to a waiting helicopter for the 10-minute trip to the Wasakaka Palace in downtown Tokyo.

Leftist demonstrations against the President's visit have so far been largely nonviolent. But the government threw a massive security screen around the presidential visit, with 25,000 Tokyo police on full alert and another 100,000 on standby orders in other parts of the country.

The threat of demonstrations and the uncertain political future of Prime Minister Tanaka, who is accused of using his official position to profit financially, caused some questioning

Bloodmobile Due Friday

Phil Pfleeger, chairman of the Pickaway County Red Cross Blood Program Committee announced today that the Bloodmobile will be in Circleville at the Community United Methodist Church from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday.

Those who donated blood on September 24 will again be eligible, since more than eight weeks have elapsed. Blood supplies are never completely adequate for the need, making it sometimes necessary to postpone non-emergency surgeries until the blood becomes available.

Prospective donors are urged to make appointments by calling the Red Cross, 474-5736.

See Rockefeller Confirmation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Senate Rules Committee predicts the Senate will vote to confirm Nelson A. Rockefeller as vice president soon after Thanksgiving.

Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., chairman of the panel, also says he expects to vote in favor of the nomination "on the basis of what I know now." Cannon spoke Sunday on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

Cannon convenes the committee hearings today for the fourth and final session of the nationally televised inquiry. The committee is scheduled to hear testimony from some of the New York state officials who received gifts and loans from Rockefeller when he served as New York governor.

Rockefeller himself will be back on the witness stand as hearings begin later this week before the House Judiciary Committee. The approval of both the Senate and House is needed to confirm the nomination.

William J. Ronan, for 17 years a key aide in Rockefeller's New York state administration, was scheduled to be the lead-off witness in the Senate caucus room to explain why Rockefeller gave him $550,000, all but $40,000 of it in the form of forgiven loans.

Ronan, who is currently the unsalaried head of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, draws a $100,000 annual salary as a senior adviser to the Rockefeller family and $12,500 yearly as a trustee of the New York Power Authority.

In his testimony last week Rockefeller described his gifts to Ronan and others in New York state government as an outgrowth of the Rockefeller family's tradition of sharing with others.

"I have been dismayed by the embarrassment that has been brought to persons who, without exception, are innocent of the slightest impropriety in accepting the help that I could give them," Rockefeller said. He said the loans and gifts were made without corrupt motives and that the financial aid was not intended to influence or reward the official conduct of those who received it.

Ronan served Rockefeller first as chief of staff in his office, and in 1964 was deputy director of his unsuccessful campaign to gain the Republican presidential nomination.

He later became chairman of the Metropolitan Commuter Transportation Authority which was expanded two years later to take over the New York City Transit Authority and the Triborough Bridge and Tunnel Authority.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, who was with Ford, told reporters aboard Air Force One that no decisions are expected to emerge from Ford's four days in Japan. He said the aim is to expand on current good relations and determine how the United States and Japan can "work together on a global basis."

The secretary of state said substantive matters to be discussed in Tokyo include Japan's role as a world power, stability in the Pacific, international oil problems and such bilateral topics as trade and agricultural policy.

The consolidation was aided by an agreement for the Chase Manhattan Bank to transfer $367 million of debt from the old Triborough Authority to the new Metropolitan Transportation Authority.

The transfer of the debt was arranged by Gov. Rockefeller and his brother, David, president of Chase Manhattan.

Ronan was a key principal in the negotiation.

In his testimony, Rockefeller referred to a recent book in which Ronan's role in the consolidation of the transportation agencies was described as part of a secret deal with the Rockefeller brothers to benefit the family's financial interests.

Rockefeller called this accusation false and irresponsible and "totally untrue."

CROP WALKERS—Approximately 200, tired, but enthusiastic marchers walked and completed the 10.8 miles walk for CROP, Sunday, ending at the Logan Elm High School. A beautiful day was provided for the walkers as they talked, kicked pop cans and played football along county roads. The participants will collect the money pledged to them to be turned in Sunday at the Community United Methodist Church. The marchers were kept in line by the Pickaway React units and Sheriff's Auxiliary Deputy Marvin Widmar. Widmar has assisted the CROP Walk for four years. All participants who began the march ended the walk.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Inflation, recession, and coal strike worries combined to drive the stock market sharply lower in fairly active trading today.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 14.47 at 633.14, and losers swamped gainers by about 8-to-1 on the New York Stock Exchange.

Analysts noted that the selling, most of which came in the first hour of trading, appeared to represent a buildup of concern over the economic outlook and the potential effects of the nationwide coal strike.

Occidental Petroleum, the NYSE's most-active issue, was down 1/2 at 13 1/2. A 42,000-share block traded at 13 1/2.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index was down 1.20 at 67.56.

The NYSE's composite index of nearly 1,500 common stocks fell .90 to 37.24.

Houston Oil & Minerals, the volume leader on the Amex, tumbled 2 to 25.

Butz Counterattack On Food Aid Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz is preparing a counterattack against criticism at the World Food Conference in Rome that the Ford administration is dragging its feet on aid to hungry nations.

Butz, who called a news conference today, headed the U.S. delegation to the 11-day Rome conference. The meeting ended early Sunday after the Ford administration turned down a request for an immediate boost of one million tons in U.S. food aid this year.

The major achievement of the 123-nation conference was the creation of a new United Nations agency, the World Food Council. It will coordinate international policy on food production, aid, reserves, nutrition programs and investment drives to increase capital into needy nations.

An agreement also was reached on a program of world food security, which will be established with a system of grain banks, nationally held but internationally coordinated, to insure an adequate supply of food in time of bad weather or natural disasters.

In refusing to supply an immediate increase of one million tons in U.S. food aid this year, Butz said the United States has been the main provider of world food aid over the past quarter century and that grain currently is being moved in substantial quantities to needy areas.

The additional commitment had been urged by Democratic congressional leaders at the conference. The White House indicated that such a step would have been inflationary and costly to American consumers.

One informed source said the administration has decided not to make any single dramatic announcement of food commitment in the near future, even to head off criticism from members of Congress and others. But the administration will stress a gradual and selective approach to commitments as needs arise, the source said.

Meantime, consumer food prices continue to soar, partly as the result of reduced harvests this year. The smaller crops have meant higher prices for livestock feed and have forced cutbacks by farmers, particularly among pork, poultry and dairy producers.

But foreign demand for U.S. grain has remained strong — although down from the record levels of last season — and cash sales will continue to drain reserves. Wheat and corn stockpiles will be down next summer to their lowest levels since 1948, the Agriculture Department says.

Prosecution In Final Week At Watergate Cover-Up Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prosecution opens the final week of its case in the Watergate cover-up trial with plans for the jurors to view a 10-minute video tape of the Senate Watergate Committee hearings.

The jury will hear testimony today from Paul O'Brien, an attorney who was asked to help defend the Nixon re-election committee against a $1 million civil suit filed by the Democratic National Committee shortly after the June 17, 1972 break-in at DNC headquarters.

O'Brien was named an unindicted co-conspirator in the alleged cover-up by the grand jury that indicted the defendants now on trial.

Several witnesses have testified that O'Brien took part in a series of meetings described by prosecutors as a part of the cover-up. Defense sources have said that O'Brien cooperated with the Watergate prosecutors in the early days of the investigation of the cover-up.

When O'Brien's testimony is completed, the prosecutors will play for the jury a video tape of defendant H.R. Haldeman testifying before the Senate Watergate Committee in the summer of 1973. Prosecutors apparently hope to show variations between what Haldeman said then and what evidence at the trial purports to show.

Associate special prosecutor James F. Neal said last week his case will be completed by late Thursday.

Among the last major block of evidence to be put before the jury will be additional White House tape recordings, many of them never made public before.

Most of these tapes record meetings between former President Richard M. Nixon and his aides in April 1973, just before Haldeman and another principal defendant, John D. Ehrlichman, resigned their White House posts.

About ten of the tapes cover talks between Nixon and former White House special counsel Charles W. Colson, who was originally indicted in the coverup. Colson had those charges dropped after pleading guilty to another offense. He now is serving a prison term.

Three court-appointed doctors also are expected by the end of the week to take preliminary steps toward a medical examination of Nixon. After the examination, the doctors will recommend whether or not he will be physically able to testify at the trial.

Nixon Happy To Be Back Home

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon is happy to be home again after a three-week hospitalization, staff aide Diane Sawyer says. But she describes the former president as pale and very weak.

"I haven't talked to anyone who has seen him this weekend, but I'm sure he's still spending most of the day in bed," Miss Sawyer said Sunday. "And I know he's happy to be out of the hospital and back among his own things."

Nixon, 61, was released Thursday from Long Beach Memorial Hospital Medical Center, where he underwent surgery to prevent a blood clot in his left leg from moving to his lungs or heart. Doctors still are watching blood tests to see if Nixon is responding properly to oral anticoagulation drugs being administered for his phlebitis condition.

Rain Borders United States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain bordered much of the nation today and fog rested on many of the middle states.

Showers and thundershowers were scattered from southeast Missouri to the Carolina and Georgia coasts and along the Texas coast. Thundershowers stretched along the Pacific Coast.

Dense fog reached from central Oklahoma and Texas through the lower Mississippi Valley and into northwest Florida. Fog also was scattered over Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois and Missouri.

Rain and snow hit the northern Rockies and heavy snow warnings continued over the western Oregon mountains and the northern Sierras in California and northeast Washington. A winter storm watch was posted for the central mountains of Arizona.

A band of clear sky extended from the northern plains and upper Mississippi Valley through the northern Ohio Valley and over the mid-Atlantic states.

Temperatures ranged from 16 at the Minot North Dakota Air Force Base to 77 at Fort Lauderdale and Miami, Fla.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson and his Labor government have made their long-anticipated pitch to Britain's parliament.

Following the recent parliamentary elections which gave Wilson's party a majority of three in the House of Commons and thus at least a theoretical working majority, the British leader has begun an all-out campaign to socialize much of the nation's industry.

Under Wilson's plans, several major industries — including shipbuilding, aircraft manufacturing and land slated for development — will be nationalized. Britain also will take for the government 51 per cent of oil and gas rights in the North Sea.

Higher taxes on property and gifts will be imposed and private firms considered keys to the economy will be purchased and operated by the state. Large corporations which escape outright domination by the government will be forced to negotiate planning agreements with the industry ministry.

Much of this plan for expanded socialism will require parliamentary approval, but Wilson seems confident he can gain that because of the splintered opposition. If passed, the Wilson program will impose a much tighter control on private operations in Britain by central state authority.

Making Health Palatable

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — It had to come, sooner or later, and thank God it did! The Children's Television Workshop, creators of "Sesame Street," and "The Electric Company," which is meant for slightly older kids, has worked its way up to adults, the most neglected age bracket. And, by all odds, the dumbest.

The artists and writers and leprechauns who populate the Workshop, a group that made television's desert to bloom, have finished a two-year effort — 26 one-hour programs under the title "Feeling Good."

The first will be televised this coming Wednesday night on the 250 stations of the Public Broadcasting Service.

In the solid tradition of "Sesame Street's" obedient small fry, "Feeling Good" may coax you, too, to count 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10... before you take that first martini, eat that second chocolate fudge sundae, or try for the 100 extra pushups which will give you a heart attack and cause you to croak.

Workshop people say it's the most the history of public television. One hundred of the best brains in medical and health care were picked by the scripters, and the facts exhumed were embellished and in some cases sugar-coated by nimble animation, songs, dances, comedy, diagrams and Cassandra commentary.

The whole point of the series is to increase the adult public awareness of good health practices, and the awesome personal responsibilities one has for his own well-being. Aside from alcoholism and the problems of the heart, the series will fasten an eye on cancer, child care, dental care, hypertension, mental health, nutrition and prenatal care.

"Feeling Good" will remind those who choose to view it, instead of watching bum actors shooting blanks at one another, that they have enormously more control over their health than they realize. To make the message more palatable, each show will feature a star or stars from the worlds of comedy, sports, drama and music. In the prenatal care sequence, for example, Bill Cosby plays an about-to-be-born baby thanking his mother for taking good care of him, in embryo, by eating properly, exercising intelligently, and knocking off cigarettes.

The new show will have an extension program reaching into community-level medical, health and education groups, and local TV stations' programming. It cost $6,500,000 to put together which, we like to say, is almost as much as Alaska cost us. But you won't pay a dime for the series that could enable you to live to see the 200th birthday of the country, or the invention of a miracle plan that reduces taxes.

The tab for "feeling good" has been picked up by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting ($2.2 million), the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation ($1.737 million), Exxon Corp. ($1,037,500) and Aetna Life and Casualty Co. ($1 million).

Yasir Arafat used a hauntingly familiar approach to the delegates when he spoke to the UN Assembly. Then I remembered:

The locale was a smaller, less-illuminated room — the lounge at the Madison Hotel here in New York. Long time ago. Through the intercession of Toots Shor, I had arranged to interview Frank Costello, at that time the titular head of The Mob. Nobody could precisely identify The Mob, but cops and citizens alike were sure that it was an evil combine and must be erased.

It was late afternoon, before the cocktail rush. The well-groomed mobster sat at a table under a soft spotlight with his big cheerful Irish bodyguard. He was smoking an English Oval and had poured himself a drink from a world-renowned Scotch whose distillery he once controlled during Prohibition. Toots and I sat down. A pianist was softly playing Costello favorites. At a respectful distance in the darkened room sat other faithful Costello business associates and a plug-ugly or two.

Costello opened the conversation,

Demo Governors To Prod Solons

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — Democratic governors are seeking ways to prod the Democratic-controlled Congress into passing significant anti-inflation measures.

The state executives meeting on this resort island also want to prevent renewed factional battles at the party's mini-convention next month in Kansas City.

Minnesota Gov. Wendell R. Anderson, chairman of the Democratic governors, called on the party's congressional leaders to pass "significant bills that deal with inflation."

Gov.-elect Hugh L. Carey of New York, a member of the House, said, "I'm going back to Congress tomorrow to emphasize that this should be a back-to-work session. I think it is a test of the Democratic party whether it can govern itself and help govern the nation."

About 30 of the 46 Democratic governors and governors-elect began formal sessions today. Party chairman Robert S. Strauss and former North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford were to lead a discussion on the mini-convention this morning.

Gov. Jimmy Carter of Georgia said on his arrival, "We must come out of Kansas City as a party of harmony. We don't want a showdown vote there just to prove who is the strongest."

Carey echoed that theme as he told reporters, "If the Democratic party goes to Kansas City and concerns itself over procedural matters when the people are concerned about bread, the people are not going to look kindly on the Democratic party."

He said the party charter should be debated for about two hours and the rest of the time at Kansas City devoted "to bread and butter issues."

Anderson said he believed the governors could have "a tempering effect on our own delegations. And I think it would be very much in the best interests of the country if a governor were on our national ticket" in 1976.

All-American Cities Eyed

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Twenty-one cities were under consideration today for the National Municipal League's award as All-American City.

Judging got under way as the league began a three-day symposium here focusing on the importance of competence and credibility in carrying out the affairs of government. About 2,000 delegates were expected to attend.

Guest speakers for the conference include Arkansas Gov. Dale Bumpers, former U.S. Atty. Gen. Elliott Richardson, public opinion pollster George Gallup and Ruth Clusen, president of the League of Women Voters of the United States.

Judging in the All-American City competition was to be done today and Tuesday. Winners will be selected by a jury in recognition of outstanding progress of their communities through citizen action programs.

The cities being considered are: Norwalk, Calif.; Pleasant Hill, Calif.; Pomona, Calif.; South El Monte, Calif.; Tampa, Fla.; Downers Grove, Ill.; Gardner, Mass.; Fall River, Mass.; Pontiac, Mich.; Farmington Hills, Mich.; Excelsior Springs, Mo.; Raleigh, N.C.; Norfolk, Neb.; Cincinnati, Ohio; Chillicothe, Ohio; Wooster, Ohio; Allentown, Pa.; Grand Prairie, Tex.; Spencer, W. Va.; Spokane, Wash.; and Eagle River, Wis.

The National Municipal League is a non-profit organization whose goal is to assist local and state governments in operating more efficiently, says its assistant director William J. D. Boyd.

In 1852, more than one million people lined the streets of London to view the funeral procession of the Duke of Wellington.

In 1935, economic sanctions were imposed against Italy because of its invasion of Ethiopia.

In 1936, the Fascist governments of Germany and Italy recognized the Franco regime in Spain.

Ten years ago: The Pentagon announced plans to close 95 military bases and installations, including some naval shipyards.

Five years ago: Joseph Kennedy died at his Cape Cod home after a long illness. He was 81.

One year ago: Ten oil-producing Arab nations relaxed their petroleum cutbacks to most of Europe, but kept them for the Netherlands and the United States.

Today's birthdays. Philadelphia orchestra conductor Eugene Ormandy is 75. Pollster George Gallup is 73.

Thought for today: Men are what their mothers made them — Ralph Waldo Emerson, American writer, 1803-1882.

A total of 11 Pickaway County offices were to be up for election in 1960 along with four state offices, three district offices, and the presidential election.

Hunting season entered its third day in Pickaway County with hunters reporting good takes of rabbits and pheasants. Several men were arrested for hunting without permission.

A state meteorologist with the Columbus Weather Bureau told interested Ross and Pickaway County residents of the possibility of establishing a communications system. Reason for the concern was a flood of the Scioto River that cut-off many southern Ohio communities from contact with the remainder of the state.

Five seniors, four juniors and seven sophomores were trying to make the Circleville varsity basketball team coached by Dick Snouffer. Three returning regulars were Bob Shadley, Larry Hannahs, and Jake Bailey.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Every once in a while I'm told that my face is yellow and that I look jaundiced. Can jaundice come and go like that without any illness?

Mrs. L. V., Ind.

Dear Mrs. V.:

I doubt that the discoloration you describe is really jaundice. Many people who are excessively fatigued may develop a pale appearance which would look yellowish in certain light.

Real jaundice is a discoloration of the skin and the conjunctiva, or covering, of the eye. This is due to an excess accumulation of bile pigments in the blood.

The liver is the chemical factory that excretes bile pigments. If there is any interference with the function of the liver, or if there is an obstruction of the free flow of bile from the liver into the small intestine, the backup of bile causes jaundice.

In hepatitis, where liver function is diminished, or where there is a blockage of the bile ducts, or if obstructing stones are present in the gall bladder, jaundice will occur.

Jaundice is a symptom, not a disease. Many intricate chemical and biological tests are not so expertly performed that the exact cause of jaundice can be quickly established.

It would give you further assurance that you do not have jaundice if you were to have an examination of your urine and blood when you experience discoloration.

What is a normal pulse rate?

Miss T.D., Ky.

Dear Miss D.:

There are many normal variations of the heart and the pulse rate. What is normal for one person may not be normal for another.

About 80 beats per minute can be considered average. With excitement, exertion, exercise or emotional stress, the pulse rate may go to 110 or even 120 beats per minute.

With rest, the rapid beat in a healthy person will return to normal.

Just the other day, there was a news story about the 35-per-minute heart and pulse beat of a national champion tennis player. This unusual rate obviously did not adversely affect his fine performance.

Dear Editor:

MID-EAST — A year ago we said: "There is developing a new crisis — an energy crisis. This crisis is going to emerge as an important factor in the struggle against world imperialism. It is going to be a critical problem for imperialism. It is adding a new dimension to the struggle in the Mid-East." Needless to say this new dimension has become a very important factor in the present Mid-East crisis. The basic issue in the Mid-East crisis is imperialism and the product is oil. There is a new situation in the Mid-East. There is a new balance of forces. Israel and the United States have become totally isolated. Israel's policies of annexation are now universally condemned. The world is ready to defend the existence of Israel, but it sharply condemns its policies of annexation and aggression. For Israel this isolation has become a dead-end street. Its present policies are not only a threat to world peace but they are the main threat to the existence of Israel. This was dramatically demonstrated, as we all know, by Nixon's irresponsible, insane "alert" — an act of nuclear brinkmanship.

Israel has stubbornly continued its policies of imperialistic aggression and annexation only because of the support of U.S. imperialism and world Zionism.

U.S. imperialism had hoped to continue using Israel as its political, military and ideological center of subversion against the anti-imperialistic governments and forces in the Mid-East and Africa. But, Israel's isolation and the growth of the anti-imperialistic forces have made these policies somewhat counter-productive. There is a growing pressure in the U.S. for a shift from these policies. The large oil monopolies are now all in this new pressure group. Many of the large banks have also joined the forces which are demanding that the United States shift its policy. These forces are not for an end to the policies of imperialism. They are for a shift in tactics. The aim is to control the Mid-East oil resources. The United States and Israel are still hoping to split the front of the Arab countries. That explains their constant delays in negotiation.

Because of these internal pressures, Kissinger has started to maneuver and the leaders of Israel have become nervous and apprehensive. The maneuvers include a shift in U.S. policies.

In its isolation, Israel is now at the complete mercy of U.S. imperialism. U.S. imperialism controls the tap which dominates Israel's lifeline.

Israel faces a clear choice. The continuation of Israel's present policies of annexation means inevitable disaster. The owner choice is to accept the U.N. Resolution 242, put an end to its own policies of aggression and an end to being a pawn of U.S. imperialism. It is Israel's choice, to continue to be a pawn in the hands of world Zionism, or to free herself from Zionism's influence and begin to follow an independent policy. Israel has the choice of establishing relationships with the anti-imperialistic movements and the socialist countries of the world. This is not only the path for survival; it is the path for an independent, prosperous, democratic Israel, living in peace with its neighbors.

If Israel chooses such a path, this will then present a clear choice to its neighbors. Their choice will be to accept the existence of Israel as a reality and to establish diplomatic and trade relations with her. Most Arab nations and the world have stated their readiness to accept this reality.

Circleville, Ohio

Dear Editor:

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to The Circleville Herald for its generous coverage of "The Sound of Music."

As a community theatre our purpose is to educate as well as to entertain, neither of which would be possible without the support of the community as a whole.

We are grateful to our advertisers, the news media, the county commissioners, and to all theatre-goers. With your help, we shall continue to grow and to bring to this area all phases of live theatre — comedy, drama and musicals.

Sincerely,
DIANE H. BERGER

Math Teacher Welcomed To Teays Valley

By DEBBIE MURRAY
A new face seen in Teays Valley's corridors this year is David Tener, a new math teacher.

Tener attended Ohio University. He is married and resides in Kingston. Tener last taught school at Unioto. With Unioto being about one half the size of Teays Valley, he at first thought teaching here would be difficult, but now he thinks it is an interesting challenge.

Tener likes the system, the administration, and the faculty. He finds the students really are nice to work with and he enjoys his courses, especially his algebra courses.

As a new teacher said "On the whole, TVHS has a lot of spirit, not only in athletics, but in academics, which makes a more interesting day in class."

Field Trip Reports Are Favorable

By LUANNE DIXON

Some of the places visited were Thomas Edison's Workshop, Lincoln's Courthouse and Noah Webster's House. After visiting Greenfield Village, everyone went to Ford Museum.

Points of interest were antique cars, farm machinery, trains, airplanes and early recipes.

This trip was considered one of the most exciting yet taken.

Conserve gas like your job depended on it.

Because it might. American industry is the largest single user of energy ... so the current shortage of natural gas poses a serious threat to jobs. The amount of gas available to business and industry depends in part on how much gas the residential customers consume ... and how much they conserve.

The most important thing you can do now to save gas is set your thermostat at 68 degrees or lower during the heating season.

Other things you can do like insulating, weather-stripping, caulking, and cutting down your use of hot water will also conserve. The more gas you save, the more will be available for industry, the more available for jobs ... maybe yours. Saving gas can help save jobs.

'Holiday Decorations' Program Of Pickaway County Garden Club

A prelude of Christmas describes the "Holiday Decorations" program of Pickaway County Garden Club at its Tuesday evening meeting in the social rooms of First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Kenneth Hannan served as program chairman, discussing how the decorations were made.

Small tree shapes included those made of fruits and nuts, hickory nut shells on a glass base, vari-colored corsage pins holding beads on tree cones and rug yarn in an open lacy design lighted from within by miniature lights.

Wreaths were of ornamental grass, nylon net and velvet with fruit. Pixies adorned a rug beater and pink egg carton sections made a perfect angel. There was a small plaque of 3-D winter scenes under domed glass. Four family figures were fashioned in silver with round candle "heads," a plaque of seeds and nuts; arrangements of fresh greens using a Madonna or candles. Candles were also used with a fruit and nut ring, double cone ring and a three candle arrangement with greens, ribbon and satin balls.

A cricket box, ornaments of various materials, a tiny basket, a mobile of satin balls, cloth flowers all added a special note.

There were lace wicker plaques, each featuring different color combinations and designs of materials. Also swags of greens, acorns, cones etc. with one finished in a gold tone.

A colorful Santa Claus was made of recycled material. The face was made of a half bleach bottle with a round nose added, the beard and hair was of cleaner bag poms and a felt toboggan topped his head.

Refreshments were served by hostesses, Mrs. Charles Pugsley, chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Hannan, Mrs. C.P. Heiskell, Mrs. Howard Davies, Mrs. Jack Frantz, Mrs. Roy Huffer and Mrs. Bernard Savey.

The table centerpiece, made by Mrs. Savey, was a globed candle arrangement with bronze mums and grapes encircled with a ring of boxwood greens topped with pyracantha berries.

Preceding the program, Mrs. Savey, president, conducted the business session and made a suggestion for a ways and means craft project. Members who can help make holiday arrangements at Chillicothe Veterans Hospital on Dec. 19th will leave at 9 a.m. from the home of Mrs. Emmett Barnhart, 200 Northridge Road. Small decorative items are needed for the arrangements.

Members are to take a wrapped gift for a veteran to the next club meeting 7:30 p.m., Dec. 10th, at the home of Mrs. Collis Young, 311 E. Main St. Mrs. Sidney Ayers will judge the gift wrapping this year.

Visit To Japan Corrects Absurdity

TOKYO (AP) — President Ford's arrival in Tokyo resolves what many call a historical absurdity: the seeming inability of an American President to visit one of his most important allies in Asia.

Prior to today, no U.S. President had set foot in this crowded archipelago. The first American legation opened in the fishing village of Shimoda, 100 miles southwest of Tokyo, on July 7, 1859.

President Eisenhower almost made it in 1960 but canceled his trip because of violent leftist demonstrations against the U.S.-Japan Security Treaty.

Over the past 75 years, Japanese-American relations have fluctuated from initial euphoria to hatred and war as Japan grew to be a rival imperial power in the Pacific.

The aftermath of World War II brought about a reassessment and the realization that the former enemies needed each other economically and in the common opposition to Communism. From wartime hostility the two nations moved to friendship without illusion, one in which a defeated Japan depended lopsidedly on its American benefactor.

Trade between the two countries soared in recent years, reaching a record $18 billion in 1973. American culture, attitudes and habits seeped into the Japanese consciousness.

Yet a significant gap remained and was fed during the late 1960s and early 1970s by the continued American occupation of Okinawa and the Vietnam war which the Japanese violently opposed. Then the United States returned Okinawa to Japan in 1971 and withdrew from Vietnam.

The gap appears to have closed a bit more with the departure from the White House of President Nixon, whose abrupt reversal of U.S. policy toward China and whose imposition of trade and monetary restrictions irked the Japanese because they were given no advance warning.

Few if any concrete agreements are expected to result from Ford's visit, but it has been described as immensely important symbolically, restoring "face" to the Japanese and opening the way for a more confident association.

7,000 Attend Vocational Open House

Paul Hydell, superintendent of the new Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational Center, said today that approximately 7,000 people had visited the new facility during Sunday's open house. Original estimations had promised only about half that number but Hydell said the law enforcement officers on duty for the open house activities had arrived at that number by estimating the number of visitors passing through the gates.

A steady stream of guests was reported during the four hours that the center was open for public inspection. The administration had no formal activities planned at this time but had the building set up for tours. Hydell said he thought the entire teaching staff was on hand during the open house. The teachers were available in their respective classrooms, shops and labs to answer the public's questions concerning the particular phase of the vocational facility with which they were associated.

Weather conditions on Sunday were also cited for the tremendous turnout. The new vocational center presently has 465 students enrolled and serves all of Ross County, most of Pickaway County and part of Hocking County. Students attending the vocational center during their junior year are offered 25 programs from which to choose. The center prepares its students to either step from the school into a job area or into a technical school or college.

See Better Outlook For ERA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters of the Equal Rights Amendment say the recent state legislative elections have brightened the chances that five more states will ratify ERA, thus making it part of the Constitution.

The Constitution requires approval by 38 states, and 33 states previously have approved the amendment. The ERA would prohibit discrimination based on sex.

The new optimism among ERA supporters represents a turnaround from the pessimism expressed last summer at a meeting of the National Women's Political Caucus.

Mary Brooks, ERA coordinator for the League of Women Voters, and Pat Keefe of Common Cause had told the caucus that they doubted the ERA would be approved by more than two or three more states this spring.

But the elections changed that forecast.

"I don't know of a state where we haven't picked up pro-ERA strength," said Ms. Brooks, who prefers the designation Ms.

The defeat of anti-ERA incumbents was particularly noticeable in such states as Missouri, Florida, Arizona and South Carolina, she said.

In some contests, the victors were women challenging anti-ERA office holders. In other cases, the winners were men who had the backing of the informal ERA lobby, consisting of the League, the National Women's Political Caucus, Common Cause, the National Organization for Women, the Business and Professional Women and others.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

She Wants To Put Men In A Net

DEAR ABBY: I work in the kitchen of a restaurant and the law says all WOMEN have to wear hairnets.

Well, we have some men working in the kitchen whose hair is a lot longer than some of the women's and there's no law that makes THEM wear hairnets. I don't think that's fair. I mentioned this to the boss and he just laughed, but I don't think it is any laughing matter. What do you think?

MADDIE
DEAR MADDIE: I think the hairnet law should apply to all professional food handlers with long hair.

DEAR ABBY: Thank God for you. You're the only one I can turn to for help.

My wife and I are separated and will be divorced as soon as we can get the money together. We are still friends.

She thinks she is pregnant. She's been seeing my brother, and she says the odds are that it's his baby. There is a slim chance, however, that it's mine. No one knows she's pregnant but she and I. If the baby is mine, I will accept the responsibility and support it as I do our other children. But if it's my brother's, I intend to disown it.

Is there any way to tell whose baby it is after it's born? If there is no way to tell for sure, I want to do what's best for the baby. What do you suggest?

IN DOUBT
DEAR IN: Blood tests after the baby is born will not determine who the baby's father IS-only who the baby's father ISN'T. Since you and your wife are still married, in the case of doubtful paternity, it would be wise to accept the child as your own.

DEAR ABBY: I need your help to get my wife back. I never realized how much I loved her until I lost her.

Maybe you heard about the anthrax epidemic that hit the cattle in Texas this summer, Abby. I was right in the middle of it. I was near broke and desperate to sell a herd before my section of the state was quarantined. My wife told me it was wrong to sell cattle without waiting to find out if they had anthrax.

I knew she was right, but I needed the money. I told her I was going to sell anyway, and she stood right up to me and said she'd call the authorities if I moved one steer off my land.

That's when I hit her, Abby. I knocked her down on the kitchen floor. I could have cut off my hand the minute it happened, but like a stubborn fool I walked out of the house and left her laying there. I guess I must have

Wage And Price Controls Urged

DELAND, Fla. (AP) — Saying "we are in a serious recession," a member of the Federal Trade Commission has called for re-institution of wage and price controls.

"All of my training, what knowledge I have, and my instincts tell me that we are in a serious recession," Paul R. Dixon said Friday during a speech at Stetson University. "I do not join those in our society who believe it is inevitable that we must endure periodic booms and busts."

"Each recession inflicts its worst pains upon those least able to endure them," said Dixon, a former chairman and present member of the FTC. "I suggest the re-institution of wage-price controls...at least until a re-examination of the laws of the land can be frankly and seriously undertaken."

Johannesburg is the second largest city in Africa and largest in South Africa.

The Tasman Sea separates New Zealand from Australia.

walked around for an hour talking to myself. When I came back I was ready to get down on ly knees, beg her to forgive me, and promise not to deal the steers, but she was gone. I called her relatives. Nobody knew where she was, or else they wouldn't tell me.

Abby, I can't live without that woman. I've loved her since she was 16. That was the only time I ever raised my hand to her in the 27 years we've been married. She reads your column every day, so maybe she'll read this, wherever she is. Ask her to come bak home, Abby?

HEARTSICK
DEAR HEARTSICK: You've done it better than I ever could.

Fred was haled into court on a charge of drunk driving, after a blood test showed an alcoholic content of more than .15 per cent. According to local law, this created a presumption that he was "under the influence."

But in his defense, Fred argued that such a presumption was unconstitutional.

"No two individuals are alike in their ability to tolerate alcohol," he said. "I happen to be able to hold my liquor better than most people."

However, the court upheld the presumption and found Fred guilty as charged.

"Medical science," said the court, "has established a rational relationship between the percentage of alcohol in the blood and (the) condition of being under the influence of alcohol. Sobriety decreases as the percentage increases."

The idea of a presumption of intoxication, at a certain alcoholic level in the blood, has spread nationwide. Almost invariably, it has been held to be constitutional.

Nor can a motorist avoid taking a sobriety test on grounds of self-incrimination. Traffic laws usually provide that a motorist consents in advance, when he takes out his driving license, to submit to testing or lose the license.

Of course, the test must still be administered properly to stand up in court. Suppose that the equipment was inadequate. Or that too much time elapsed between the arrest and the test. Either circumstance could invalidate the results.

In one case, the officer who had administered a sobriety test acknowledged at the trial that he was not well trained in operating the device.

Result: the defendant motorist was set free. The court said the law would not automatically accept test results as valid merely because they happened to come out of a machine.

Ohio PTA Seeks Power

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio PTA leaders from across the state made plans Friday to give the 443,000-member education organization more political clout in the General Assembly.

"We must convince the legislators that the PTA members understand the issues," said Mrs. Frankie Ross, state PTA legislation chairman, following an all-day strategy session.

To accomplish this, she said, the leaders developed the following steps for getting local PTA units involved and aware of how legislation affects the education of their children:

—PTA regional legislative leaders will conduct workshops on the Ohio PTA legislation program in local school units.

—Local units will be encouraged to invite legislators to attend PTA meetings to discuss education issues.

—Volunteers in each local unit will be chosen to serve as contacts with their state senator or representative.

—A monthly PTA legislation newsletter will follow the actions of the General Assembly and local units will be urged to meet regularly to discuss legislation.

Mrs. Ross said the major concerns of the PTA in the next legislature will be to work for more money for education and to oppose legislation which it believes would erode the authority of elected boards of education and public control of education.

SAVE ABOUT $680 OPERATING COSTS. '75 CHEVY PICKUP VS. COMPARABLE '74*

1975 C10 Half-Ton 350 V8 Fleetside Pickup

Based on GM Proving Grounds mileage tests and extended maintenance intervals for Chevy's best-selling 1975 pickup—projected through 50,000 miles.

Chevy is serious about truck economy. For 1975, Chevrolet has made meaningful advances designed to lower the costs of operating this C10 Pickup. Based on GM Proving Grounds mileage tests and new extended maintenance intervals, projected through 50,000 miles of driving, savings in operating costs can be as much as $680 compared to last year's comparably-equipped model.

Let's look at this specific model: the popular C10 Half-Ton V8 Pickup*

This is Chevy's best-selling pickup and it offers outstanding potential for lower costs of operation. Projected savings based on GM Proving Grounds tests are shown in the box at the bottom of this advertisement. These savings, of course, will vary depending on equipment, loads, operating conditions, driving habits and the price of gasoline.

* VEHICLES AND TEST DESCRIPTION

Comparisons are based on the following 1975 Chevrolet Half-Ton Pickup and its comparable 1974 model: C10 350 2-barrel V8 Fleetside Pickup, 8-foot box, under 6,001 GVW, equipped to comply with Federal emission standards, with Turbo Hydra-matic 3-speed transmission, 3.40:1 axle ratio, and L78-15 tires. Mileage tests were conducted in the GM Proving Grounds City/Suburban Driving Schedule at average speeds of 24 mph with 1.6 stops per mile. Test averages from three production '75 models were compared with test averages from three production '74 models. Test weights were 4,649 pounds for the '75s and 4,570 pounds for the '74s.

More miles per gallon definitely helps lower the cost of ownership.

Comparing this 1975 Chevy C10 Half-Ton Pickup* with its 1974 counterpart in the GM Proving Grounds City/Suburban Driving Schedule, the '75 Half-Ton, using unleaded gasoline, showed about a 14% reduction in fuel consumption over the '74 model using leaded fuel. As detailed in the box below, this would amount to net savings of $343 in 50,000 miles. Again, these savings will vary depending on equipment, loads, operating conditions and the price of gasoline.

New extended maintenance intervals help reduce operating costs.

Compare maintenance costs for the same two pickups. Following the Maintenance Schedule for recommended service, this '75 C10 Half-Ton Pickup, using unleaded fuel, could save about $337 on parts, lubricants and labor over the comparable '74 model, using leaded fuel, projected through 50,000 miles of driving. That's because this new '75 C10 model has a catalytic converter and High Energy Ignition and needs fewer scheduled changes for spark plugs, oil, and filters, needs fewer chassis lubes, and has no points or ignition condensers to replace.

Year in, year out, more Chevy trucks are on the road than any other make.

And that's a fact, according to R. L. Polk & Co.'s industry statistics. An important fact to consider, along with lower operating costs, when you're ready to buy.

PROJECTED LOWER OPERATING COSTS DURING 50,000 MILES

1975 Half-Ton 350 V8 Fleetside Pickup*

Increased miles per gallon

As tested in GM Proving Grounds City/Suburban Driving Schedule, this 1975 Chevy C10, using unleaded fuel, shows about a 14% reduction in fuel consumption over a comparable '74 model using leaded fuel. That's 700 fewer gallons in 50,000 miles. Cost figures could vary, depending on the price of leaded and unleaded fuel in local areas; however, at a price of 56¢ per gallon for unleaded fuel, allowing a one cent per gallon increase over leaded fuel as permitted by Federal regulations, this would represent a net savings of $343.

Extended maintenance intervals

Chevy compared scheduled maintenance costs for both '75 and '74 Half-Ton models, using recommendations from the 1975 Chevrolet Truck Series 10-30 Light-Duty Emission System Maintenance Schedule, current list prices for parts, and a figure of $11 an hour for labor. Actual figures in various specific localities could be higher or lower. Projected through 50,000 miles, the savings in parts, lubricants and labor for this '75 model could add up to $337.

Nursing Homes To Violate Law

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— About 600 nursing homes will be violating a new state law after Jan. 1 and the Ohio Health Care Association claims it is mainly the state's fault.

On the first day of next year the new law requiring all Ohio nursing homes to have approved sprinkler systems goes into effect. Of nearly 1,100 nursing homes in Ohio, only 218 are so equipped.

Shortages of materials are part of the problem, said G. T. Dalton, president of the health care group. He said 166 have had plans approved, but it will be well into next year before installation can be completed.

One of the major hangups, the nursing home spokesman contended, is brought on by the state. Three state agencies must approve work before it actually can begin, they said.

Dalton also said 80 per cent of the nursing homes in Ohio are nearly bankrupt "because of inadequate reimbursement for Medicaid recipients by the state."

Dalton said he wrote Gov. John J. Gilligan a letter in which he said constantly changing and new regulations — such as a 48-inch sidewalk around the homes — are forcing owners to spend thousands of dollars.

"What these and hundreds of other requirements have to do with patient care is the most perplexing problem nursing homes have ever faced," he wrote.

"We are alarmed at the total lack of concern of our administration regarding this dilemma. A bureaucratic system that will force over 625 homes to close, putting 26,000 to 28,000 ill, aged and handicapped patients on the street is unbelievable. "It is impossible for us to understand

Ohio Demos Eye Future

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Democratic Party is readying itself for a new experience: "Control of statewide offices ... but not the governor's office."

State party Chairman William A. Lavelle said following a Saturday session that Gov. John J. Gilligan will have a "strong and equal voice in management of party affairs for several years to come," despite his re-election bid failure.

Lavelle said the Saturday session was called to discuss some of the short-range goals and the party.

Despite Gilligan's upset defeat by Republican former Gov. James A. Rhodes, Lavelle said he didn't believe the governor would "crawl into a hole or leave the state."

"Gilligan is a strong party man. He believes the party is the best vehicle to cement and solidify views of people on government," Lavelle said.

Toy Safety Buttons Dangerous

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission is recalling 80,000 lapel buttons promoting toy safety because the buttons have sharp edges, paint with too much lead and clips that could break off and be swallowed by children.

The yellow buttons show a toy brown bear and black lettering proclaiming: "Think Toy Safety."

The buttons were sent to the commission's 14 field offices to be distributed to groups interested in toy safety. The commission said none of the buttons reached consumers.

A spokesman said the buttons would be destroyed and the commission would probably pay the $1,700 bill for the buttons to the Lewis Co. of Washington since the agency didn't specify in its contract that the buttons be safe.

Routine safety tests by the commission revealed that paint on the buttons contained 1.97 per cent lead. The federal law policed by the commission limits lead in paint to 0.5 per cent.

Credit Measure Passage Pushed

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio chapter of the National Organization for Women has resolved to lobby for passage of legislation in Ohio that would prohibit credit discrimination against women.

The women also called upon Gov.-elect James A. Rhodes to "further implement women's legislation" after he takes office in January.

Lana Moresky of Shaker Heights was elected state coordinator during NOW's two-day convention. She succeeds Judy Sidwell of Cincinnati.

Diggers Hoping To Save Old Village From Utilities

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Archeological diggers are hoping for a reprieve from utility construction plans on the site of a pre-historic village in southwestern Hamilton County.

University of Cincinnati anthropologists were visted Sunday by UC President Warren G. Bennis on the Miami Fort site of the new Cincinnati Gas and Electric Co. transmission plant.

So far, faculty, students and amateur helpers have unearthed 14 human skeletons and a number of pre-historic tools, weapons and household items.

Dr. Gustav Carlson, head of the anthropology department, called the site "outstanding, very rich."

"All indications from the material there is that it is very fruitful to excavate there. If we couldn't, something very irretreivable would be lost—like burning books."

CG&E officials suspended construction of towers 32 days ago, but indicate the firm must resume earth moving on Wednesday.

Professor Kent Vickery said "We are having a hard time figuring out what was going on at the time" the village was in operation about 3000 B.C.

"Evidence from the CG&E site might help explain this period." The dig is near another site in Shawnee Lookout Park, at the confluence of the Ohio and Great Miami

Police Trial Continues

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Samuel Harris, a former Newport nightclub operator, is expected to take the stand this week in the trial of three Newport policemen accused of taking payoffs.

Harris is serving a federal prison term on another charge and is expected to be brought in from a facility in Terre Haute, Ind.

Friday, a government prosecutors showed films in U.S. District court they claim show three policemen receiving payoffs.

The films were taken from a camper truck and from windows of a nearby building close to the Brass Ass nightclub in Newport, FBI agents testified.

More than 60 photos were produced from the special lightamplifying lenses that were used in the surveillance last December.

Upsets Scramble NFL Playoff Picture

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

On a day when the playoff picture was supposed to become a little bit clearer, the National Football League turned into scrambled eggs Sunday.

In one of the least surprising developments of the day, the defending Super Bowl champion Miami Dolphins moved into first place in the American Conference East with a nail-biting 35-28 victory over the Buffalo Bills on Don Nottingham's second touchdown run of the game, a 23-yarder on a draw play with 19 seconds to play.

And in one of the most surprising, the Los Angeles Rams failed to lock up the National Conference West title. All they needed was a tie. What they got was their teeth kicked in as New Orleans' Archie Manning needed them with 17½ yards worth of precision passing and the Saints also ran for 146 yards en route to the 20-7 shocker.

And Houston's for-real Oilers, who began their winning streak with a 34-21 stunner over Cincinnati a month ago, shut down the Bengals 20-3 with a fierce defense, Dan Pastorini's pinpoint passing and Willie Rodgers' two touchdown runs.

In Sunday's other games, the Green Bay Packers kicked the Minnesota Vikings 19-7, the Jets edged the New England Patriots 21-16, the Baltimore Colts beat the Atlanta Falcons 17-7, the St. Louis Cardinals turned back the Philadelphia Eagles 13-3, the Washington Redskins burned the Dallas Cowboys 28-21, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Cleveland Browns 26-16, the Detroit Lions nipped the New York Giants 20-19, the San Francisco 49ers smothered the Chicago Bears 34-0 and the Oakland Raiders downed the San Diego Chargers 17-10.

The Raiders, with their victory, clinched a tie for the AFC West title and can win it outright tonight—if the Denver Broncos lose to the Kansas City Chiefs.

Dolphins 35, Bills 28
Nottingham's run was only supposed to set up a tie-breaking field goal—but the Miami line blew out Buffalo's defense and gave Nottingham a clear path to the goal line.

Earlier Nottingham ran for 11 yards to put the Dolphins ahead 28-21 with five minutes to play, a lead wiped out with less than a minute to go when Buffalo's reserve quarterback, Gary Marangi, hit Bob Chandler with a five-yard scoring pass.

It appeared headed for overtime—but not for long. Bob Griese passed for 31 yards to Paul Warfield, then Jim Kiick caught a 12-yard pass and ran for 11 more. That put the ball on the 23, where Nottingham took over.

Saints 20, Rams 7
The surprising Saints shut out Los Angeles until James Harris threw a meaningless fourth-quarter touchdown and slammed the door on Lawrence McCutcheon, league-leading rusher who got just 28 yards against New Orleans.

The meaningful touchdowns were Manning's, a 79-yarder to Bob Newland and a 17-yarder to Joel Parker. Bill McClard kicked in with field goals of 28 and 51 yards.

Oilers 20, Bengals 3
The Oilers, wrecking Ken Anderson's passing game, won their fourth straight for the first time in a dozen years and dropped the Bengals 1½ games back of first-place Pittsburgh in the AFC Central Division.

The Houston defense didn't give any touchdowns—and hasn't in 10 straight quarters. Anderson was intercepted twice and sacked six times.

Packers 19, Vikings 7
Chester Marcol kicked four field goals, then John Hadl teamed with MacArthur Lane on a 68-yard touchdown pass play that sealed Green Bay's victory and dethroned Minnesota's run toward the NFL Central title.

Jets 21, Patriots 16
Joe Namath passed for two touchdowns—but it was the defense that made the difference for the Jets. New York picked off four Jim Plunkett passes to drop the Patriots two games back of Miami.

Colts 17, Falcons 7
Lydell Mitchell piled up 151 yards on 33 carries, setting up touchdown runs by Marty Domres and Bill Olds to hand the Falcons their second loss and first at home under Coach Marion Campbell.

Cardinals 13, Eagles 3

The Cardinals, staying a game ahead of runnerup Washington in the NFC East, sacked Philadelphia quarterback Roman Gabriel nine times.

Quarterback Jim Hart scored the only touchdown on a one-yard run and kicker Jim Bakken kicked two fourth-quarter field goals.

Redskins 28, Cowboys 21
The Redskins, with a three-touchdown burst in the second period, roared to a 28-0 halftime lead, then held off the Cowboys.

Joe Theismann, substituting for quarterback Billy Kilmer in a running situation, ran in for a three-yard touchdown in the first period. In the second, Charlie Evans ran in from six yards out, Ken Houston raced 58 yards for a touchdown on a punt return and Kilmer hit Roy Jefferson with a 31-yard scoring strike.

Steelers 26, Browns 16
Pittsburgh ended a 10-year Cleveland Stadium jinx by beating the Browns. There were 13 turnovers, the 12th the big one—Cleveland quarterback Brian Sipe's fumble midway in the fourth quarter. Joe Greene recovered it for Pittsburgh, then he lateraled it to J.T. Thomas, who went 10 yards for the touchdown that broke a 16-16 tie.

Lions 20, Giants 19
Errol Mann kicked a 37-yard field goal with two seconds left to beat the Giants. With 1:58 to play, Bill Munson drove Detroit from its own 20 to the New York 20 to set up Mann's winning kick.

49ers 34, Bears 0
Rookie Tom Owen bombed the Bears for 316 yards and two touchdowns and scored on a short run in a three-touchdown San Francisco burst in the second quarter. "Whew, that's not a bad day," he gulped.

Raiders 17, Chargers 10
Quarterback Ken Stabler threw a 60-yard touchdown pass to Cliff Branch and Cas Banaszak swept in from the one, then the Raiders withstood San Diego's fourth-quarter comeback attempt for their victory. The Chargers' touchdown came on rookie running back Don Woods' one-yard dive.

OSU-Michigan Showdown Slated

By JOE MOOSHIL
AP Sports Writer

The wait is over, the work is almost done. Michigan's Wolverines, undefeated and ready, go up against Ohio State Saturday where a victory will give them the Big Ten title, the Rose Bowl bid and a possible national championship.

Michigan remained undefeated with a 51-0 trouncing of Purdue which Wolverine Coach Bo Schembechler said "is exactly what we needed to propel us into the big game next Saturday at Columbus."

Despite the fact Ohio State has one loss, Michigan has to win or at least tie to grab the title and Rose Bowl bid. A loss would leave the two powers tied for the title with conference athletic directors again voting to decide which team will get the bowl bid.

Last year the two teams went into the final game undefeated and ended up with a 10-10 tie. Ohio State was voted the bowl bid much to the disdain of Schembechler and Michigan backers.

"The team is really looking forward to the Ohio State game," said Schembechler. "Don't underestimate that, we'll be ready. It's tough playing away from home, but we don't want to share it again this year."

Quarterback Dennis Franklin, who completed seven passes before leaving the game in the third quarter with a slight ankle sprain which isn't considered serious, said of the Rose Bowl: "I want to go bad this year. It's my senior year and last chance."

Ohio State rebounded from its 16-13 loss to Michigan State by ripping Iowa 35-10 to set the stage for the Michigan showdown.

Michigan State started slowly but had enough to down Indiana 19-10, Illinois scored with 45 seconds remaining to defeat Minnesota 17-14 and Wisconsin, led by Billy Marek, pounded Northwestern 52-7.

In addition to the Michigan-Ohio State battle Saturday, Iowa will be at Michigan State, Northwestern at Illinois, Indiana at Purdue and Minnesota at Wisconsin.

'Must' Games Coming Up For Collegians

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

For 11 weeks, many college football coaches have tried to keep their teams from looking ahead ... to the next two weeks.

Next Saturday, for example, top-rated Oklahoma can clinch the Big Eight championship by beating sixth-ranked Nebraska, third-ranked Michigan and No. 4 Ohio State have their Big Ten Rose Bowl showdown and Southern California, ranked eighth, tackles crosstown rival UCLA for the right to represent the Pacific-8 Conference in Pasadena on New Year's Day.

Elsewhere, Yale, unbeaten, untied and unranked, squares off with arch-rival Harvard for the Ivy wreath and similarly unranked Brigham Young can nail down the Western Athletic Conference title and its first bowl trip ever—the Fiesta Bowl—with a victory over Utah.

The regular season then grinds to a halt over the Thanksgiving weekend with the likes of Penn State-Pitt, Texas A&M-Texas, Alabama-Auburn, Army-

Navy, Notre Dame-Southern Cal—all on national television in a three-day period—Georgia Tech-Georgia, Tennessee-Vanderbilt, Oklahoma State-Oklahoma and Arizona State-Arizona.

Most of the teams in The Associated Press ratings emerged unscathed over the past weekend. Oklahoma ended its first week as Ohio State's successor as No. 1 with a 45-14 victory over Kansas. Runnerup Alabama kept pace by trimming Miami, Fla., 28-7 while Michigan clobbered Purdue 51-0 and Ohio State rebounded from its loss to Michigan State and trounced Iowa 35-10.

Notre Dame, ranked fifth, edged No. 17 Pitt 14-10 with a late touchdown, Nebraska whipped Kansas State 35-7, No. 7 Auburn shaded Georgia 17-13 and Southern California nailed Washington 42-11.

Florida was the only member of the Top Ten to stumble. The ninth-ranked, Sugar Bowl-bound Gators fell 41-24 to upset-happy Kentucky, which embarrassed Peach Bowl-bound Vanderbilt a week earlier. Rounding out the Top Ten, Texas A&M remained atop the Southwest Conference with a 37-7 drubbing of Rice.

In the Second Ten, No. 11 Penn State downed Ohio University 35-16, No. 12 Miami of Ohio completed a 9-0-1 regular season by trimming Cincinnati 27-7 and No. 13 Maryland clinched the Atlantic Coast Conference crown with a 56-13 rout of Duke.

Houston, No. 14, overcame Memphis State 13-10, No. 15 Michigan State turned back Indiana 19-10, No. 16 North Carolina State thumped Arizona State 35-14, Colorado stunned No. 18 Fiesta Bowl-bound Oklahoma State 37-20, No. 19 California outslugged Washington State 37-33 and Baylor stayed on Texas A&M's heels in the SWC by beating No. 20 Texas Tech 17-10.

With Oklahoma rushing ace Joe Washington held to 69 yards, Steve Davis took up the slack with 138 yards, including a one-yard touchdown, and passed for 106 more, featuring scoring tosses of 72 yards to Billy Brooks and 14 to Tinker Owens.

Meanwhile, Dave Humm threw a pair of touchdown passes as Nebraska's Cornhuskers tuned up for Oklahoma by trouncing Kansas State.

Gordon Bell rushed for 166 yards, Dennis Franklin threw two touchdown passes and Rob Lytle tallied twice to help Michigan thrash Purdue.

Meanwhile, Ohio State's Archie Griffin ran for 175 yards—the 21st consecutive game he's rushed past the 100 mark—and Champ Henson scored three times as the Buckeyes defeated Iowa.

Tom Clements' three-yard run with less than three minutes remaining lifted Notre Dame past Pitt and marked the second week in a row the Irish had to come from behind in the final period.

Auburn's Phil Gargis engineered two long scoring drives, helped set up a field goal and then turned things over to the defense, which turned back two late Georgia threats.

Southern Cal's Anthony Davis gained 147 yards and became the first three-time thousandyard runner in Pacific-8 Conference history as the Trojans battered Washington. Davis needs 10 yards to break O.J. Simpson's career rushing record.

Florida stunned Kentucky with 17 points in five minutes of the first half but the Wildcats rallied behind the running of quarterack Mike Fanuzzi, who paced a 334-yard ground assault. Bubba Bean's two touchdowns and Pat Thomas' 29-yard run with a fumble sparked Texas A&M past Rice.

Penn State's Tom Donchez scored three times against Ohio U. Steve Sanna, a surprise starter, fired two touchdown passes as Miami of Ohio whipped Cincinnati.

Maryland's Bob Avellini completed 10 of 11 passes for 191 yards and tight end Walter White scored three times in the Terrapins' rout of Duke. Larry Houston's fourth-quarter interception set up Marshall Johnson's second touchdown as the University of Houston downed Memphis State.

Charley Baggett, Rich Baes and Levi Jackson all gained more than 100 yards and Baggett and Baes each scored a touchdown as Michigan State fought off Indiana. Stan Fritts and Roland Hooks ran for two touchdowns apiece as N.C. State whipped Arizona State. Terry Kunz tallied three times in Colorado's thumping of Oklahoma State.

California's Steve Bartkowski completed 21 of 30 passes for 304 yards and broke Craig Morton's career passing mark as the Golden Bears outlasted Washington State. Pat McNeil galloped 20 yards for the winning touchdown and Ron Burns' interception set up another score as surprising Baylor downed Texas Tech.

Yale clinched at least a tie in the Ivy League with a 19-6 triumph over Princeton. Texas, which dropped out of the Top Twenty last week, scored on eight of its nine possessions in the first half for a 52-3 lead—most points ever in one half for the Longhorns—and mauled Texas Christian 81-16. And champion Tulsa swept to a perfect 6-0 Missouri Valley Conference record by walloping Drake 52-14 as Jeb Blount fired five touchdown passes and Steve Largent caught five.

Top Teams Vie In Prep Playoffs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Second-ranked Warren Harding and No. 3 Upper Arlington, two high school football teams with a flair for the dramatic, settle the Ohio Class AAA playoff title Friday night.

Both fashioned fourth-quarter eruptions Saturday to reach the championship game for the first time in Akron's Rubber Bowl.

Upper Arlington (11-0-0) mustered all of its points in the final period to oust fifth-ranked New Philadelphia 27-7.

In the second half of the Ohio Stadium twin bill, Warren Harding (10-1-0) punched across 14 of its total in a 20-10 shocker of No. 1 Cincinnati Moeller.

In Class AA, Norwalk (10-1-0) goes against Louisville Aquinas (9-0-2) Friday night in Dayton's Welcome Stadium.

Norwalk downed Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary 20-7 and Louisville Aquinas tripped Cincinnati Mariemont 19-7 in semifinals Saturday night.

Middletown Fenwick (10-0-1) guns for its second straight Class A crown, meeting Fremont St. Joseph (9-2-0) Friday night at Upper Arlington High School.

Fenwick, the state's second-ranked Class A team during the season, pounded Newark Catholic 34-6 while St. Joseph fought off Windham 6-0 in the semifinals.

Upper Arlington's rally was no surprise to Pete Corey, its coach.

New England Whalers Hammer Stags, 6-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Michigan Stags are staggering and Coach Johnny Wilson is getting sick of it.

"This was our most humiliating defeat," fumed Wilson Sunday night after the New England Whalers coasted to a 6-1 World Hockey Association decision over the Stags. "So far we've played 45 periods of hockey, and I'll bet our opponents have outshot us in 42 of them."

"This is nothing new," he said. "We've been behind most of the season. But with our depth, I do feel we wore them down."

Quarterback Gary Ginther, who missed four games with a broken collar bone, ran nine yards and passed 11 to Scott Staker for touchdowns to trigger the comeback.

The rally impressed New Philadelphia Coach John Behling. "They undoubtedly were the best team we've played. They might be the best offensive team I've ever seen in high school," he said after watching the Quakers close a 9-1-1 season.

Moeller's 22-game regular season victory streak evaporated and Crusaders' Coach Gerry Faust took the loss hard.

"I still think we're the best team in the state," said Faust, whose squad lost in the semifinals for the second straight year.

A pair of daring gambles paid dividends for Harding. Coach Ed Glass refused to punt on fourth down at his 23 and 31-yard lines with more than five minutes to play. The strategy worked, springing the Panthers on their go-ahead touchdown drive 12-10.

"We had no choice," Glass said. "We felt we had to keep the football."

Faust said he would have punted. "I wouldn't have gone for those first downs," he said.

John Ziegler, who broke Paul Warfield's conference and school records with 1,586 rushing yards this season, was the difference. He ran 50 yards for one touchdown and rolled up 172 yards.

"They (Moeller) were tired and Ziegler was fresh in the fourth quarter. This is nothing new for this kid. He's super," said Glass.

Norwalk quarterback Dan Hipp ran for two touchdowns against 1972 playoff king St. Vincent-St. Mary, the first set up by an Akron fumble on its own 13-yard line.

Akron's only score came on a pass from reserve quarterback John Walsh to Roland Greene to cap a 65-yard drive in the final period.

Aquinas totally dominated the game on offense against Mariemont, with quarterback Steve Barr completing nine passes for 179 yards and halfback Greg Golding running for 125 yards in 30 carries. Aquinas capitalized on two Mariemont fumbles and stymied three Cincinnati drives with pass interceptions.

Wittenberg In Running For Title

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Wittenberg Coach Dave Maurer just wants the facts.

"I don't want to hear any garbage or speculation who is going to get in the title game," Maurer said, after his team defeated Baldwin-Wallace 17-0 in the Ohio Athletic Conference championship football game Saturday.

The victory puts the Tigers high on the list of schools being considered for the NCAA Division III title game, which they won last year by defeating Juniata.

"It's all rubbish," Maurer said of the speculation. "It's just like all the talk about who's going to get the bowl game bids. All I care about is getting the phone call about who gets it and who doesn't."

However, Maurer added, "I think we deserve the right to defend our title." Last year the Tigers went undefeated. This season their record is 7-1.

"Both teams are championship teams," Maurer said, comparing the squads. "The record will show that last year's team was better, but this one came back after an opening day defeat and two ties to play real good football. This is an excellent football team."

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR TUESDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Mars extremely beneficent. You now have a chance to cash in on good will, to increase your prestige.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Get together with associates who share your interests to discuss ambitions, hopes, plans for the future, new ideas in general.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): A great day for presenting your ingenious ideas. Don't let "stick in the mud" types dissuade you.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): This day's progress could be furthered by joining forces with someone outside your normal circle.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): The Leoite rarely puts himself "on the defensive," but a complex job situation could cause you to take such a stand now. Don't! Assert your rights.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Avoid present tendencies toward lethargy and inertia. Self-discipline is an innately Virgoan trait. Stress it now.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): A curious suggestion may be made. If you have even the slightest doubt about it, reject summarily. Your hunches are usually correct.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): Curb a tendency toward wishful thinking. This is a day in which to stress realism and practicality. Imagination is great — except when it runs out of bounds.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Home and family concerns under highly beneficial influences. In fact, a recent domestic problem will finally be straightened out satisfactorily.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Don't regard decisions made in the a.m. as final. Certain circumstances may necessitate revision later in the day.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): You have good reason for optimism now. A superior's enthusiasm for your efforts not only pays off, but further spurs your ambition and incentive.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Others may be overly aggressive, pressing for their "rights" to the exclusion of yours. Watch your own interests. Don't let anyone push you around.

YOU BORN TODAY are governed by Scorpio, Sign of magnetism and well-rounded capability. You are a sure-footed and powerful leader and, when necessary, a loyal follower. You are inclined, however, to go to extremes — stubborn and inflexible at one moment, gracious and yielding at another. The well-developed of this Sign are fighters for principles and for the underdog, and relish challenges and competition. Extremely versatile, there are many fields in which you could succeed — most notably in the business world, the law, science, statesmanship, the judiciary or the theater. Birthdate of: Ferdinand de Lesseps, builder of the Suez Canal; King Charles I, of England; Indira Gandhi, Prime Minister of India; Dick Cavett, TV personality.

Elephant Seals Make Comeback

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Elephant seals have returned to the Farallone Islands, a lonely group of windswept and fog-shrouded islands 30 miles off San Francisco's Golden Gate.

The discovery was made by a group of scientists who have been making periodic trips to the islands since they were abandoned by the Coast Guard.

For thousands of years these giants of the sea lived along the California coast from Pt. Reyes south to Cape Lazaro off Baja California. Their only natural enemies were giant sharks and killer whales.

They were practically annihilated starting about 1855 when they were slaughtered by seal hunters who used only the fat from their bodies for rendering into oil.

The killings stopped in 1870, but by that time the Elephant seal was virtually extinct. Now a new generation of these 5,000-pound giants of the sea has started returning to the old mating grounds, protected by the U.S. government.

220 Call Boxes For Stranded

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — A 58-mile stretch of Interstate 91 soon will have radio call boxes to aid stranded motorists.

The Federal Highway Administration has approved installation of 220 of the boxes on the stretch of road running through central Massachusetts from the Connecticut to the Vermont borders. The project is expected to be completed by September 1975.

The call boxes will transmit a signal to the Northampton state police barracks.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — I used to think yoga devotees only were health buffs who spend half their lives wrapping their legs around their necks. Not any more. Liliya Folan has set me straight, so to speak.

And she knows whereof she speaks. She teaches yoga on her "Liliya, Yoga and You" series that the Public Broadcasting Service airs three times a week for the 124 public TV stations now carrying it.

First of all, she said as I assumed the classic interview position, a tuned-up body is by no means the sole benefit of yoga exercise; it's equally beneficial to one's spiritual and mental well-being.

"I'd define yoga as the art of living," said Mrs. Folan, a charming, raven-haired woman whose only apparent flaw is that she makes one feel guilty his only exercises are mulling and brooding.

"It gives you the tools to cope with life and its challenges," she continued. "And the exercises are a marvelous springboard for self-knowledge."

Mrs. Folan said she had been undergoing therapy for emotional problems when she happened to read a book on yoga about 12 years ago.

While she now considers the book superficial, she said it changed her life by helping her realize yoga's aims aren't so much body tone as they are peace of mind, higher energy levels and release of tensions.

She said she took up the teaching of yoga after only a year's study, mainly because her first teacher was so bad she felt she could do the job far better.

Mrs. Folan, who's married to a business executive and is the mother of two boys, still was teaching when the family moved from Connecticut to Cincinnati, Ohio, about seven years ago.

Two years later, after a number of guest shots on local commercial TV as a yoga expert, she said she proposed the idea of a regular yoga series to public TV station WCET in Cincinnati.

Station officials liked the idea, gave it a try and it's been on ever since, although this is the first season "Liliya, Yoga and You" has been offered nationally by PBS.

One Extreme To The Other

POZAREVAC, Yugoslavia (AP) — Mile Milovanovic, a retired railroadman, has never had time to go on a spree and has decided he will give his grandsons a chance.

He worked hard all 40 years of his employed life, married off three daughters and now enjoys three grandsons.

Recently he made a will bequeathing his entire property to his grandsons, but stipulated that they squander the entire sum eating, drinking and merry making.

"I have had a hard life. Youth passed quickly and I have never got around to go on a drinking spree, once. What I failed to do I wish my grandsons to make up," Mile explains.

Deputy Nabs Trio In Columbus Theft

$1300 IN CHECKS—Sheriff's Deputy James Deal looks over checks valued at $1300, taken from the Midwest Distributing Service Co., on Lockbourne Road early today. Deal arrested Joseph A. Thacker, 20; for driving while intoxicated, and Donald Howell, 52 and Earl Ray Childers, 32, all of Columbus for disorderly conduct. The trio is being implicated in the Columbus burglary.

Further charges are pending, by Pickaway County Sheriff's Authorities, on a Columbus trio involved in a break-in early today at a Columbus firm.

The Ohio State Patrol dispatched Sheriff's Authorities to be on the lookout for a car with occupants who appeared intoxicated. Deputy James Deal, on routine patrol, spotted the car on Route 23 and stopped it near the RCA entrance.

Assisted by Circleville Police, Deputy Deal brought Joseph A. Thacker, 20; Donald Howell, 52 and

Find Turkey For Holiday Cheaper

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Americans trying to fit holiday celebrations into inflationtight budgets have at least one thing to be thankful for this year: turkey is cheaper than it was in 1973.

An Associated Press survey showed that while the cost of most of the ingredients of a Thanksgiving dinner has gone up, turkey prices have dropped by about 20 cents a pound to an average of 49 to 69 cents.

Poultry producers said the reason for the decline was an abundant supply and they complained they were losing money on their birds.

"We've been losing up to $2 per bird," said Carl Johnson, head of the Wisconsin Turkey Federation. Poultry producers said it costs about 35 cents a pound to raise a turkey. They're getting only about 28 cents a pound.

The rest of the Thanksgiving dinner is more expensive, however.

A comparison of supermarket advertisements in Montgomery County, Md., for November, 1973 and November, 1974 showed bread, used for stuffing, was up from 30 to 48 cents a loaf; fresh cranberries went from 29 to 39 cents a pound. And, if you get a headache from all the festivities, aspirin went from 59 cents per 100 to 89.

Most Americans said they'd manage a traditional dinner despite inflation, but there were exceptions.

Cost For Arafat Security $750,000

NEW YORK (AP) — It cost the city of New York $750,000 to protect Yasir Arafat during his stay here last week, says Mayor Abraham D. Beame.

Beame said Sunday the costs included $696,592 for salaries and overtime payments to more than 1,000 police officers. They were taken from precincts to protect the Palestine Liberation Officer leader when he was here last week to address the United Nations.

4 Nations Could Help Beef Demand

WASHINGTON (AP) — The four major cattle producing countries of South America represent a huge potential for meeting world beef demand but there are formidable obstacles to developing these sources, an Agriculture Department expert said today.

Robert R. Anlauf of the department's Foreign Agricultural Service said the four countries — Argentina, Brazil, Paraguay and Uruguay — offer "a latent promise" of becoming a huge cattle-producing region.

But political problems, lack of transportation, disease and archaic marketing methods are big hurdles in the four countries. Anlauf said in a weekly issue of "Foreign Agriculture" published by USDA that no major breakthrough appears close at hand. "Weather and climate for cattle raisers in the main production areas of all four countries are excellent," Anlauf said. "Droughts, when they occur, are usually of short duration and cover only small areas."

Argentina has the most developed cattle industry, Anlauf said, but is beset with political unrest which has delayed further progress. Paraguay and Uruguay appear to be on the threshold of expanding their cattle industries.

But it is Brazil that offers the greatest potential, Anlauf says. One of the biggest problems, however, is an inadequate transportation system there. "Vast new cattle areas lie well beyond the highways and railroads, thus impeding the flow of cattle," Anlauf said.

Mills Incident Helps Stripper

BOSTON (AP) — Annabel Battistella has parlayed the Tidal Basin incident into a more lucrative career as a stripper.

The 38-year-old Argentinian, who police pulled out of the Tidal Basin in Washington after she jumped out of a car carrying Rep. Wilbur Mills, opens tonight at Boston's Pilgrim Theatre under her stage name, Fanne Fox.

She'll be making $3,500 a week. And she'll be billed as "The Washington Tidal Basin Bombshell."

77-Year-Old Still Planning Marriage

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP) — Rachel Fittler, 77-year-old Main Line millionairess, says she still plans to marry her 29-year-old former chauffeur.

"We're too old for puppy talk," she assured a reporter Sunday, walking near the garden of her estate in suburban Philadelphia.

"Everything's the same as it was unless Mikey changes his mind," she said, referring to her fiancé, 29-year-old Michael Wilson of Wales.

But Miss Fittler refused to say whether a wedding date has been set. "We're just drifting," she said.

Miss Fittler said she didn't mind being single — until now. "I just had a good home. But now I'm kind of lonely."

Then, her thin, aristocratic face lit up as she spoke of Wilson:

"This boy came along and he wanted it (marriage). I put all the blame on him."

"He told me before he went (to Wales) that he'd put it (an engagement announcement) in a local paper. I had no idea it would go beyond that."

Wilson, vacationing on the English Channel island of Guernsey, was quoted this week in a London newspaper as saying: "I spoke to Miss Fittler only a week ago, and everything was fine. Her only concern was that I should enjoy myself. She didn't object to the things I told reporters. As far as I know, the wedding is still on. I haven't heard anything to the contrary."

Miss Fittler said, "Mikey is an only child and has been a great deal with older people. I met his mother and father, they visited here. I think they're very clean cut."

Miss Fittler shared a family fortune, which totaled $8 million in 1931, with her niece Happy Rockefeller, wife of Vice President-designate Nelson A. Rockefeller.

She said she doesn't think she deserved the publicity she has received since her marriage plans were revealed last month.

"I'm just an ordinary person," she said, standing outside her mansion, her charcoal-grey hair pulled back severely from her face.
